Acid or Base Worksheet

In this mini pack are:

- the labels (back pages) that I used so that we were able to remember what substance we put into each cup – there are some blank ones allowing you to make your own
- 2 versions (colour and color) of the worksheets that where your student/s are able to write their hypothesis, what really happened and if an acid or base resulted.
 - 2 blank versions allowing you to write in your own substances
